ANNOUNCEMENTS

COLONIAL THEATRE. Goodness Gracious, or Movies as They Shoulan't Be, Vitagraph.

Surely motion picture lovers never looked upon a more successful and altogether delightful comedy than the one offered its patrons today by the Colonial theatre. It is the world-renowned Goodness Gracious, the masterful three-reel Vitagraph production for the colonial than the colo pertraying Movies as They Shouldn't Be, with a cast including Clara Young, Ned Finley, Kate Price, Sydney Drew Ned Finley, Kate Price, Sydney Drew and many other favorites. This picture had the phenomenal run of 250 performances at the luxurious Vitagraph theatre in New York city. It is one big scream, with the most villainous villain that ever pursued a heroine, outheroining all other heroines. Murder plot, nipped in the bud, dark dungeons, cyclonic chases in which the villain still pursues her, and everybody size. Curses upon curses! Love trielse. Curses upon curses! Love tri-umphs. Villainy is vanquished. Good-ness Gracious, it's a terrible plot. Too funny for words. The picture must tell it. The most amusing concoction of farcical episodes ever amassed to delight the lovers of droll funnyisms. Don't miss this big event. In New York city you would pay 50c to see this same mammoth production. Other films today are Auld Lang Syne, Biograph, and The Mirror of Death, Lu-

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Special Universal Features Today. For the last two days of this week le Auditorium has selected 6,000 feet the Auditorium has selected 6,000 feet of the best films from that famous Universal programme, with the comedy end of it prevailing.

The programme starts with the regular Auditorium Friday and Saturday number, which is the Animated Weekly, No. 107. All the latest and interesting items of interest from everywhere will be seen, and will demonstrate the fact that the Animated Weekly has camera men everywhere the sun shines. No. 2 will be our old friend and favorite, King Baggott, assisted by dainty Ethel Grandin and the sisted by dainty Ethel Grandin and the Imp Co., in the funny farce comedy entitled The Box Couch, which depicts the adventures of a newlywed.

Next will follow a two-reel adaptation of that famous old novel, Jane Eyre, a book that millions have read. Eyre, a book that millions have read. This is a special release of the lmp Co., with an all star cast headed by Irving Cummings, the Pathe star. It is not necessary to go over the plot, as Jane Eyre is a book that is known

The final number is another two-The final number is another tworeel feature, but a comedy, and it is 30 minutes of solid laughter, entitled
She Was Only a Working Girl. A great many people thought that Zu Zu was funny last week; it was, but this comedy is at least 100 per cent. more laughable, as it does not depend on one comedian, but a whole bunch of them, and the Nestor comedians are the limtt. Eddie Lyons as the brave elevator it. Eddie Lyons as the brave elevator boy, Lee Moran as the terrible villain, Victoria Forde as the poor working girl, are three of a kind that are hard to beat. If you want a good hearty laugh, don't miss this comedy classic. An extra big attraction has been booked for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week. Full details of the big surprise show will be given in tomorrow's papers. Watch for them.

CAFE CHATANT.

Much interest has been aroused in the Cafe Chatant which the College club will hold at the armory tonight. There has been such a demand for re-served tables that the original number has been several times increased. From has been several times increased. From any of the hundred tables, reserved or otherwise, there will be a good view of the vaudeville and general dancing.

Among the many charming numbers on the programme will be a Dance of the Roses; Spanish ladies in gay costumes will dance the famous bolero to the music of mandoins played by gal-lant swains, wandering troubadours will play their violins among the ta-bles, graceful dancers will demonstrate some of the new dances as well as aeethetic folk dances, French pastry cooks will carry about trays of their wares. There will be grotesque goblins, French Pierrots, sailor lads in white duck, a Scotch singer in kilts, excorted by his bagpipes, will appear, pretty girls in Breton caps will serve ice cream or sell boutonnieres, candy and May baskets. The entertainment will afford amusement for old and young, and after the vaudeville numbers are over an or-chestra will play for general dancing. The committee working so hard to make the Cafe Chatant a success constate of Miss Faith Bonfoey, Mrs. Allyn L. Brown, Miss Jane Bill, Mrs. Alfred N. H. Vaughn, Miss Josephine Sutton, Miss Catherine Beekley, Miss Marion L. Pullen, Mrs. Edward J. Graham, Miss Louise C. Howe.

LETTER FROM BROTHERS

OF DEAD MARINE. Write President Wilson They Are Ready to Fight for the Flag.

Chicago, April 30.—Meyer and Edward Meisenberg, brothers of Samuel Meisenberg, the Chicago marine killed in the opening activities at Vera Cruz, sent this letter to President Wilson sent this letter to President Wilson yesterday:

"Dear Mr. President: We are heart-broken over the death of our brother Sammy at Vera Cruz. But we are satisfied your policy is the right one. We stand ready, if necessary, to step into the shoes of our dead brother and fight for our flag in his place."

Samuel Meisenberg joined the marine corps under the name "Samuel Marten."

Rheumatism and

Both Afflictions by Using Rheuma, If you suffer from any form of Rheumatism, remember that RHEUMA goes to work quickly to remove the cause, not simply to relieve the distress. Many years' use has demonstrated that it goes to the seat of the disease that it goes to the seat of the disease and expels the poisonous matter through the natural channel—the kidneys, bowels, liver and skin.

"For many years I was troubled with Rheumatism, also with Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I suffered awfully. Tried many advertised remedies. After using your truly remarkable preservation. RHEUMA, I was fully used."—Prof. C. J. Budieng, Sound Willey, Conn.

GOD BLESS YOU, DEAR, TODAY! If there be graveyards in the heart
From which no roses spring.

A place of wrecks, and old gray tombs,
From which no birds take wing.

Where linger buried hopes and dreams
Like ghosts among the graves.

Why, buried hopes are dismal things.

And lonely ghosts are knaves!

If there come drealy winter days,
When summer roses fall.
And lie, forgot, in withered drifts
Along the garden wall;
If all the wreaths a lover weaves
Turn thorns upon the brow
Then out upon the silly rooi
Who makes not merry now!

For if we can not keep the past, Why care for what's to come? Why care for what's to come?
The instant's prick is all that stings.
And then the pince is numb.
And Life's a lie, and Love's a cheat.
As I have heard men say.
Then here's a health to fond deceit—
God bless you, dear, today!
—John Bennett.

There's blood and strife in Mexico. That fated land is filled with woe, and Uncie Sam's mailed hand is slow, But 'neath my window is a tree. That stretches forth its arms to ma With buds all bursting to be free.

I know there's strife in Ireland now, And Home Rule's caused an awful row And bloody war the leaders vow, But in the tree I see a nest. The tenant wears a gaudy vot. And whistles to his mate with I hear of wreck and flood and fire, Of foreign foes who would conspire.

They say the future's dark and dire.
But oh, the grass is sweet and green!
My garden wears a mossy sheen.
And oh, like the air is soft and clean!
